Notice about nut ingredients:

We can use various substitutes for almond flour and milk (starches and grain milks). However, we cannot guarantee the texture and quality of these items.

We do not use peanuts in any of our recipes. Custom recipes that use peanuts will be created off-site so that we can continue to promote safe access to quality baked goods. We also do not regularly use or manufacture oat products.

As with all orders, please allow a minimum of 2 business days to fill your order.
